RE: Proposed Outline for
Center for National Policy
Speech
9 June 1992, 12:00 p.m.

As you know, you will be the luncheon speaker at the Center for National Policy's "Newsmaker" program on June 9. The audience will be comprised of the group's Board of Directors and major supporters --- as well as Members of Congress, press and Hill staff. At your request, your remarks will be off-the-record. The group suggests about 20 minutes of remarks followed by 25 minutes of Q&A.

We recommend a speech that would have the following key elements:

- The Cold War has ended -- but the world is still a very threatening place.
  - We must avoid the costly mistake of 1919, 1945, 1953, 1975 (cut back in defense).
  - Need strategy to deal with changing world and external pressures on defense/intelligence.
- Strategy:
  - Policymakers prioritize issues (NSR-29)
  - Internal Changes -- Task Forces

Key Focus: Openness/JFK Files
